

AOCMF Masters Courses 2017

(with human anatomical specimens)

December 11–13, 2017
Davos, Switzerland

In response to high demand and popularity, AOCMF will again hold Master's Level courses in Davos!

"It was one of the best courses I have attended in 22 years of training and practicing OMFS. I would like to send a heartfelt thanks to the organizers and faculty for an outstanding job."

Facial Trauma Course Participant Davos 2016

Facial Trauma—Challenges and Controversies

Orthognathic Surgery—Challenges and Controversies

Soft Tissue—Improving Functional and Aesthetic Outcomes

NEW!

Information and registration, please contact:
sarah.groves@aocmf.org | www.aodavoscourses.org

www.aocmf.org

AOCMF Davos Masters Courses 2017

AOCMF is pleased to announce that three Master's Level courses will again be held at the Davos Courses 2017. These intense, demanding, and invigorating programs bring together leading experts from around the globe for an exceptional learning experience.

AOCMF Davos Course Chairs 2017
Stefano Fusetti, Max Heiland

AOCMF Masters Course—Facial Trauma, Challenges and Controversies

Chairs: Stefano Fusetti (University of Padova, IT)
Sami Alissa (Security forces Hospital, SA)

DAVOS1217_MASTERSFT.aocmf.org

AOCMF Masters Course—Orthognathic Surgery, Challenges and Controversies

Chairs: Max Heiland (Charité Universitätsmedizin Berlin, DE) Gerson Mast (Ludwig-Maximilians-Universität Munich, DE)

DAVOS1217_MASTERSOS.aocmf.org

AOCMF Masters Course—Soft Tissue, Improving Functional and Aesthetic Outcomes

Chairs: Damir Matic (University of Western Ontario, CA)
TC Lim (National University of Singapore, SI)

DAVOS1217_MASTERSST.aocmf.org

Full faculty list to be announced soon!

Course highlights

- Each three-day course includes a wet lab (one full day with human anatomical specimens)
- Courses limited to 36 participants each with two-three participants per workstation
- Debates, lectures, and small group discussions over two days
- Interactive sessions with expert faculty from around the world
- Exhibition and networking AO WORLD NIGHT
- Three keynote and meet expert sessions; Keynote speakers: Daniel Buchbinder, US (Virtual Planning)
Sven Otto, DE (MRONJ)
Guglielmo Ramieri, IT (TMJ Reconstruction)
- European CME Accreditation (2016 courses awarded 18 points each)

Target participants

The AOCMF Masters Courses are targeted for participants working at advanced and master's level with surgical experience 3–15 years.

Information

Each course price: CHF 3600.–

Course venue:

Davos Congress Centre and Davos Hospital, Switzerland

Information and registration, please contact:

sarah.groves@aocmf.org | www.aodavoscourses.org