

Emergency Skills in Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery

13-14 August 2013

RCS London

This unique, anatomically site-specialised and multi-disciplinary course offers hands-on experience in oral and maxillofacial emergency skills. The course aims to provide delegates with the basic knowledge and skills to create solid foundations for personal development in the unpredictable field of emergency maxillofacial surgery.

Course content includes:

- Cervical pitfalls in facial trauma
- Laryngeal and oesophageal injuries
- Carotid bifurcation, carotid sheath
- Tracheostomy
- Pitfalls in dilemmas facial haemorrhage
- Life/sight threatening infections
- Stabilisation for transfer

Who should attend?

CT1-ST4

Course Fee

£925

£832.50 RCS Members

Course Director

James Gallagher

Oral & Maxillofacial Consultant

Northampton General Hospital

Key Benefits:

- Improve knowledge of relevant anatomy
- Improve techniques of surgical approach

Course Format:

- Small group interactive teaching
- Cadaveric dissections
- Hands-on instrumentation

10%
DISCOUNT
FOR RCS
MEMBERS