ORAL AND MAXILLOFACIAL SURGERY

Current Challenges and Future Perspectives in Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery

12th Edition / 17–19 JUNE 2027
Iași, România

Romanian Society of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery

The Romanian Society of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery is delighted to announce its 2027 National Congress, that will be hosted by Prof. Dr. Victor Vlad Costan — President of the RSOMFS — in Iași, on 17–19th of June, 2027.

The 12th edition of the RSOMFS National Congress will bring together specialists from Romania and distinguished international guests for three days dedicated to surgical excellence — featuring advanced scientific sessions, symposia led by internationally recognized experts, innovative scientific papers, hands-on workshops, and the spirit of collegiality that defines our specialty at its best.

On 17–19 June 2027 we look forward to welcoming you to Iași — a city of outstanding academic and medical heritage, the cultural capital of Moldova and home to a medical university with over a century of tradition, the perfect setting for three days of science, collegiality, and culture.
